The crew came in state, comfortably en-sconsed in a Wagner coach, behind which trailed one of the largest baggage cars that ould be obtained, in which was stored the shell and oars. The big cedar boat, measuring 61 feet and 0 inches in length and weighing 225 pounds, caused much anxiety o the young college oarsmen, Trainer Rohn and Manager Alsted. An inspection in the Central Depot, however, showed that the hell was without a scratch, due to the way t had been suspended from the top of the baggage car in a heavy canvas cover.

The youngsters sat right up to the finish and were "all out" when they crossed the line. The time was caught at 10:15.

The form of the crews up to date, in few words, would read somethink like this: "Harvard is rowing very well, Columbia fairly well and University of Pennsylvania not very well."

All the crews were out twice to-day, as usual. Columbia was put through her paces this morning, and late this afternoon went over the entire course alone. Her launch, which is no better than a crippled "seiling plater," broke down again this afternoon, and had to be towed to port by Harvard's launch.

The Quakers were carefully coached by Ellis Ward along the west shore. They made no attempt to go the full course, as Ward kept them busy on blade and into-morrow. There is great curiosity to see just how well the Ithacans are rowing. Mumford while the crew was at Cambridge, will be here in a day or two to as-their undergraduate days.

DEFAULTED TO SCHWEGLER. No Opponent for the N. Y. A. C. Boxer, Who

Then Whipped Heavyweight Herty.

The preliminary boxing and wrestling bouts for the A. A. U. championships attracted 2,000 spectators to Madison Square Garden last night. The boxing of the embryo "champs" was much better than his been seen in similar competitions for sev-eral years. The spectators were worked up to a high pitch in several of the encounters, especially in the ones between Mylan and Reid and Powers and Flizpatrick. In the former bout Mylan knocked Reid down three times and had him bleeding freely when Police Inspector Harley stopped the contest.

when Police Inspector Harley stopped the contest.

The surprise of the tournament was spruing when Richard Powers, St. B. A. C., faced E. Fitzpatrick, Cilpper A. C. Powers was a very quick, clever, hard hitter and captured the spectators by his clever work. Every one of those entered in the middle-weight boxing class refused to meet George Schwegier, the N. Y. A. C. boxer, and he was awarded the prize by default. Schwegler then was paired with J. Herty, of the new West Side A. C., in the 158-pound class. Herty was fully twenty-five pounds heavier than Schwegler, but this did not deter the "Mercury Foot" lad, who salied into Herty, landing three straight lefts and then swinging his right on the law, staggering his man. As Herty came back from the ropes, Schwegler caught him on the law agaln, causing him to totter around the ring and almost fall. The referee caught him in his arms and dragged him to his corner, and gave his decision to Schwegler. Time of round, 2 min. 45 sec.

Coach Mumford, of Harvard, is expected back from Boston early to-morrow morning. Faulkner, the professional who helped Mumford while the crew was at Cambridge, will be here in a day or two to assist in the final practice. Mr. Watson will bridge, will be here in a day or two to assist in the final practice. Mr. Watson will not be here until just before the race, and will do no coaching. He will, however, of ficially represent the Harvard crew.

Guy Richards, of Columbia, is here, and will remain in charge of the crew until the big race. He will do most of the coaching, as Mr. Peet is prevented by business from being here this year. Richards and Mumford rowed against each other during their undergraduate days.
